Gil Tamary is the Washington bureau chief for Israel's Channel 10 News, and virtually every Israeli knows him as a top news reporter. He has worked for Israel Broadcasting Authority, Israel Public Radio, and as anchor and chief editor of "Good Morning Israel."

Gil covers a wide range of Middle East issues from the U.S. and conducts exclusive interviews with many dignitaries and political figures, including presidents, secretaries of State, the head of the World Bank and others.

His reporting has spanned from the Camp David Accords in 2000 where he conducted an exclusive interview with President Clinton, the 9/11 story and the Iraq war. During the Bush administration Gil had exclusives interviews with President Bush, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and many more. Covering President Obama's election, Mr. Tamary interviewed (then) Senator Barak Obama about his future policy towards Israel and the Middle East.
