A CONVERSATION WITH RABBI URI REGEV

January 26 at 10:30am
Woodlands Community Temple

He is the founder and president of Hiddush, an Israeli organization whose mission is to realize Israel's founding vision as articulated in its Declaration of Independence.

Rabbi Regev, an Israeli attorney ordained at HUC-JIR Jerusalem, served as founding chair, executive chair, and legal counsel of the Israel Religious Action Center. Through that and various other organizations he has been an Israeli voice for pluralistic Judaism and an advocate for human rights. He has taken on Israeli Supreme Court cases involving "Who is a Jew?" equitable funding for Reform and Conservative institutions, and the fight for representation in religious counsels. Calling on his usual passion, dynamism and remarkable facility with words, Rabbi Regev will discuss the current status of religious pluralism in Israel.

Co-sponsored by the Rivertowns Jewish Consortium: JCC on the Hudson, Greenburgh Hebrew Center, Mishkan Ha'am, Rosh Pinah Chavurah, Temple Beth Abraham, Temple Beth Shalom, and Woodlands Community Temple.

Registration needs to be received by Woodlands Community Temple by January 20th. The cost is $5.00 per person. You can register online at www.woodlandscommunitytemple.org or send a check to the synagogue (50 Worthington Road, Greenburgh, NY 10607).
