

3rd Grade Family Shabbat

Abraham

by Jeff Salkin and Jeff Klepper

Years ago in our history
At the very start of our family tree.
The Lord called out to Abraham
And that's how the Jewish people began.

CHORUS Abraham, the very first Jew.
God wants to have a talk with you.
It's time for you to leave your land
And he listened to the Lord's command.

God said, "I know of a wicked town
And now I am going to strike them down."
Abraham said, "It's not right to do,
You'll destroy all the innocent people there, too." CHORUS

God told Abraham to slay his son,
But a voice said, "Stop," before the deed was done.
He looked in the thicket; he found a ram,
And the Lord gave a blessing to Abraham. CHORUS

Al Sh'losha D'va-rim על שלשה דברים by Steven Dropkin

Al sh'lo-sha d'va-rim ha-o-lam o-meid:
al ha-torah,
v'al ha-a-vo-da,
v'al g'mi-lut cha-sa-dim.

על שלשה דברים העולם עומד:
על התורה,
ועל העבודה,
ועל גמילות חסדים.

The world depends on three things: on Torah, on worship, and on loving deeds.

Special musical Shabbat featuring:

Eric Komar

April 8 at 7:30pm

For two decades Eric Komar has shared his unique brand of Jewish music at synagogues, JCCs, camps, Hillels, and conventions nationwide. His vast performance experience runs the gamut, from preschoolers to retirees, and his superior guitar skills are well recognized. He has shared a stage with the most prominent musicians in the field and has been "instrumental" in the nurturing of a new generation of song leaders.

Eric's captivating pieces can be heard in Jewish institutions across the country and beyond, as well as on Jewish Rock Radio. His music has been described as "refreshing," "hip sounding," "having a sophisticated pop sensibility", and "compelling and truly Jewish."

*Eric has been our song leader and musician in residence during Shabbaton.
He looks forward to sharing his music and talent with the entire TBA community!*
