Saturday, September 17 at 7:00pm

This is the story of a highly decorated retired general, who, in a moment of arrogance in his youth, sold his place in heaven to an army cook for a plate of shaksuka. Some 40 years later, his son, who to his father's horror has found religion, is in a race against time. Before his father dies, he has to find that cook who 40 years earlier bought his place in heaven and nullify the contract.

Coffee and Dessert served. Free for members. Guests are asked to contribute $5.00 to offset the cost of refreshments. RSVP to AdultEd@tba-ny.org or call the Temple Office 914-631-1770
