TBA COOKBOOK—Your Recipes Are Needed!

Do you have a favorite dessert, phenomenal appetizer or an old family recipe? We want them all! The TBA cookbook is “in the oven” and we’d like to include your recipe.

Simply go to: Typensave.com to type in your recipe.

The User name is TBA and the Password is dishes504. Make sure you remember to hit save. Or you can mail in your recipe to the Temple Office, Attn: Fundraising. Submissions are due by October 14. For questions, please contact fundraising@tba-n-y.org or call Julie Gur or Meredith Siegel.

Costume Collections for Hope's Door
Sunday, October 16 from 11:00-11:45am

We will be collecting "like new/gently used" or new costumes that will be delivered to Hope's Door in Pleasantville for distribution to the young children in their care. There will be collection bins in the main lobby when you come to school that morning. Our teens, high school students, and Youth Group members will be sorting the costumes in the Sukkah. All teens are welcome to help out!

Wondrous Ones—Mommy and Me Classes at TBA
Starting Tuesday, October 25 from 9:15-10:30am

This JCC Early Childhood Program is designed for you and your "One to Almost Two Child". Enjoy a taste of preschool and a sampling of fun including music, making, planting, art, story-time, and movement. Let your toddler touch, feel and create while someone else does the clean up!

Adult Ed Presents: Judaism Under the Crescent & the Cross
Wednesday, October 26 at 7:30pm

Have you ever wondered what life was like for Jews throughout history as the minority within a larger majority? These lectures will explore Jewish life under Christian Europe and under Islamic rule in the Iberian Peninsula and in the Middle East. The focus will be on specific historical epochs that illustrate the impact the non-Jewish majority populations had on Judaism and Jewish life. Lecture is led by Stessa Peers, a TBA member and graduate of Binghamton University where she specialized in Judaic History.

The series continues on November 2 and November 16. For more information, contact adulted@tba-n-y.org.

Hebrew Conversation Class

Plans are underway to launch a class at TBA taught by David Brandwein who lived in Israel for 8 years. The class will meet on Sunday mornings during Religious School. We need a quorum to hold the class, so if you are interested please contact adulted@tba-n-y.org
