Vivane, an Israeli woman fights for 3 years to obtain a divorce (a gett) from her devout husband who refuses to grant his permission to dissolve the marriage. Her husband's intransigence, Viviane's determination to fight for her freedom, and the ambiguous role of judges form a tragic triangle.

Adult Ed Presents: *Al-Andalus and the Reconquering

(Reconquista) of Christian Spain

Wednesday, November 16 at 7:30pm

Have you ever wondered what life was like for Jews throughout history as the minority within a larger majority? These lectures will explore Jewish life under Christian Europe and under Islamic rule in the Iberian Peninsula and in the Middle East. The focus will be on specific historical epochs that illustrate the impact the non-Jewish majority populations had on Judaism and Jewish life.

Lecture is led by Stessa Peers, a TBA member and graduate of Binghamton University where she specialized in Judaic History.

Book Club Discussion—Friday, November 18 at 10:00am
Here I Am by Jonathan Safran Foer

Pick up a copy of "Here I Am" by Foer and participate in the TBA Book Club discussion. The novel is about the unfolding of four tumultuous weeks of a fractured family in a moment of crisis. At stake is the meaning of home and the fundamental question of how much aliveness one can bear. In the book of Genesis, God calls out to Abraham before being ordered to sacrifice his son Isaac. Abraham responds "Here I Am." Later when Isaac calls out "My Father" before asking him why there is no animal to slaughter, Abraham responds, "Here I Am". How do we fulfill our conflicting duties as father, husband, son, wife, mother, child, and adult? Jew and American? How can we claim our own identities when our lives are linked so closely to others?

Light refreshments served-$2.00 suggested donation per guest.

RSVP (914) 631-1770 or email AdultEd@tba-n-y.org
