Chavurah Program

CHAVURAH (chah-vuh-rah)
pl. chavrut, from the Hebrew word "chaver" meaning
1. group of friends
2. a Jewish fellowship;
especially an informal one that meets regularly.

Interested in the TBA Chavurah Program?

A Chavurah is a small group of Temple members who get together periodically outside of the Temple for social activities, mitzvah projects, recreational and learning activities—or whatever works for the group. If you are you interested in joining TBA's Chavurah Program or want to learn more about TBA's Chavurah Program, contact Mark Polisar at chavurah@tba-nj.org or call 914-591-0075.

A robust endowment will allow us to innovate and try new, bold approaches that honor and expand upon our rich traditions, and remain on the cutting edge of American worship and spiritual communities.

For information about how to get involved or to make a gift, contact Bridges Campaign Chair Gayle Aaron at bridges@tba-nj.org or call Stuart Skolnick at the Temple.
