Roll Into Dark

Text: evening liturgy music: Noam Katz

Roll into dark
Roll into light
Night becomes day
Day turns to night

Borei yom va-laila בּוֹרֵא יוֹם וְלַיְלָה
Goleil or mip-nei cho-shech גּוֹלֵל אוֹר מִפְּנֵי חֹשֶׁךְ
Goleil or mip-nei cho-shech גּוֹלֵל אוֹר מִפְּנֵי חֹשֶׁךְ
V'cho-shech mip-nei or וְחֹשֶׁךְ מִפְּנֵי אוֹר.

Creator of day and night, rolling light into darkness, and darkness into light.

V' ahavta (English)

I will love Adonai my God with all my heart, with all my soul and with all my might. I will set these words, which You command me this day, upon my heart. I will teach them faithfully to my children. I will speak of them in my home and on my way, when I lie down and when I rise up. I will bind them as a sign upon my hand and I will let them be a symbol before my eyes. I will inscribe them on the doorposts of my house, and on my gates. I will be mindful of all Your commandments, and I will do them: so shall I consecrate myself to my God. You, Adonai, are my God, who brought me out of Egypt to be my God. You, Adonai, are my God.

A Rosh Hashanah Service Reinvented
Thursday, September 21 from 10:30am—12:00pm
At the Shames JCC-on-the-Hudson

Rosh Hashanah is here and your mind is swirling with questions, big and little: How do I feel about how I handled things this past year? What do I keep putting off? What was that matzah ball soup recipe my grandmother used to make? And what kind of God asks a parent to sacrifice his son? At this interactive Rosh Hashanah service we attempt to tackle some of these universal questions through discussion and activities, poems, and prayer.

The program will be geared for adults and children over 10 (who must be accompanied by their parent(s)). We regret that babysitting is not available for this program.
