A Rosh Hashanah Service Reinvented
Thursday, September 21 from 10:30am—12:00pm
At the Shames JCC-on-the-Hudson

Rosh Hashanah is here and your mind is swirling with questions, big and little: How do I feel about how I handled things this past year? What do I keep putting off? What was that matzah ball soup recipe my grandmother used to make? And what kind of God asks a parent to sacrifice his son? At this interactive Rosh Hashanah service we attempt to tackle some of these universal questions through discussion and activities, poems, and prayer.

The program will be geared for adults and children over 10 (who must be accompanied by their parent(s)). We regret that babysitting is not available for this program.
