

We recall those recently departed.

Mace Alter, father of Lynn, Alison, and Peter Alter, and brother of Irene Schwartz
Harriet Bettman, mother of Vikki Oshins

We remember, with love, the Six Million whose lives were taken during the Holocaust. We also remember, with love, those who were taken from our midst this week in years past and commemorate the anniversaries of their passing.

One of the primary goals of the Bridges Campaign is to make the building warmer and inviting and accessible to all. Won't you help us make our dreams a reality?

For information about how to get involved or to make a gift, contact Bridges Campaign Chair Gayle Aaron at bridges@tba-nny.org or call Stuart Skolnick at the Temple.

Tikkun Olan: Midnight Run—THIS Saturday, March 10, 2018

We are collecting CASUAL MEN'S clothing in the coatroom at TBA - jeans, corduroys, chinos, T-shirts, long-sleeve T-shirts, sweaters, hoodies, warm jackets, backpacks, travel-size toiletries, disposable razors. NEW packages of men's briefs - M/L - and athletic socks are greatly appreciated. We will also need some families to make bag lunches (20 each) for the Run. If you are interested in making food, participating in the Run, or want more information about what is involved, please email Steven Chang at: midnightrun@tba-nny.org

Artists and Architects Series—Makeup Session

Wednesday, March 14 from 1:00-3:00pm

This Session's Topic: Architecture by Louis Kahn,

Peter Eisenman & Daniel Liebeskind

Back by popular demand, the architect and art historian Bruce Levy will present the final lecture on Jewish Artists and Architects. He will focus on Jewish themes and inspirations in their works.

To RSVP, call the Temple Office: (914) 631-1770.

Free for all! Coffee and cookies will be served.

Shekelvestors—Wednesday, March 14 at 7:30pm

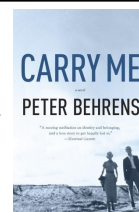

Invest in Israeli companies, learn about Israeli innovations, and support Israel! If you are interested in finding out more about Shekelvestors, call, text, or email Marla Peers (President) at 914-433-4602 or Mandi Beckenstein (Secretary) at 914-882-3751, or email us at Shekelvestors@tba-nny.org.

Morning Book Club Discussion: Carry Me by Peter Behrens

Friday, March 16 at 10:00am

This novel tells the story of Billy Lange and Karin, the German-Jewish woman he loves. Growing up in England and Ireland during WWI, Billy sees his father, a German, interned and feels the isolation that accompanies discrimination. Later, living in 1930's Frankfurt, he dreams of escaping with Karin to America, a bright spot amid Hitler's rise to power.

Free for Temple members; $2.00 for guests. RSVP: (914) 631-1770 or email AdultEd@tba-nny.org

Adult Ed Brunch with Rabbi Andrew Ergas: 3000 Years of Talking Jewish

Sunday, March 18 at Noon

This interactive presentation will explore the language journey of the Jewish people and the ways that historical languages such as Hebrew and Aramaic interacted with the languages of the surrounding culture. We will see how core Jewish concepts and values shaped, and were shaped by, these geographic and linguistic processes. Rabbi Ergas is a scholar of language and Jewish history, and is the Executive Director of the Shames JCC.

Free for TBA Members; $10.00 for guests; Donations joyously accepted! RSVP Required. Sign up on Eventbrite at: <http://bit.ly/TBA-Ergas> or call the Temple Office: (914) 631-1770

Movie Mavens Presents: Nora's Will

Saturday, March 17 at 7:00pm

Nora commits suicide in a timely way consistent with her plan to bring her ex-husband Jose, and the rest of their family together for Passover. Before she died, Nora had devised a Machiavellian plan in order for him to take care of her funeral, but she missed something; a mysterious photograph left under the bed will lead to an unexpected outcome which will remind us that sometimes the greatest love stories are hidden in the smallest places.

Cacerola Films, 2008, 92 min; Subtitles
Coffee and Dessert served. Free for members.

Israeli Folk Dancing

Wednesday, March 21 from 7:00-9:30pm

TBA Religious School 9th Annual Living Museum Exhibition:

Our History Is No Longer A Mystery

Sunday, March 25 at 9:00am

Temple Beth Abraham's 6th Grade Religious School Class cordially invites everyone to attend our 9th Annual Living Museum Exhibition. Our 6th graders have curated an exhibition spanning the generations; featuring heirlooms passed down in their families for generations from Europe and America, ensuring that our traditions and the chain of generations remains unbroken. Our students will be your docents as you browse through these treasures, hearing about each artifact and its history.

Every1Counts—Tell Us What Being Jewish Means to You?

It's almost Passover. And that means that Shavuot is not far behind: 50 days from 2nd Seder to be precise. And in between, we have the period known as the Counting of the Omer. Since 2012 we here at TBA have turned it into an amazing program called Every1Counts (E1C).

This year, we'd like to share your voice with the congregation!

As Jews, we are taught that we all stood at Sinai and said, "Naaseh v'nishma: we will do and we will listen." This year we wish to enhance our community by listening to each other, so we are asking you to tell us, in 150 words or less, "What Does Being Jewish Mean to You?" Then, each day of the 49 days of the Omer, we will share one response to the question. Please share your response to the question on the form at: bit.ly/E1C2018FORM or you can email your response to:
