

Friday Night Announcements – September 1, 2023

The Flowers on the bima are dedicated by Harold Gross in loving memory of his wife, Lori Gross.

Saturday, September 2 at 9:00am – Conservative Shabbat Service

Wednesday, September 6 at 7:30pm on ZOOM – Exploring a New Model of Teshuvah (Repentance) and Personal Growth – guest speaker Marcia Meislin

Adult Ed Committee presents a pre-Rosh Hashanah led discussion to explore a new model for sustainable “at-one-ment.” You will learn to listen with a more forgiving approach to yourselves and look more kindly at the “imperfect” people around you.

Saturday, September 9 at 7:00pm – Selichot Program, Service, and Oneg

The program is a film, The Quarrel about a stormy reunion of two Jews who had been good friends as teens in Europe but drifted apart when one remained religious and the other became agnostic. We will discuss themes of the film and how they apply to the High Holydays and our own lives.

Sunday, September 10 from 4:00-6:00pm – TBA Uncorked! Hosted by Israel Committee

Enjoy hors d’oeuvres and Israeli wines and spirits. You can preorder wines online or the day of the event.

High Holydays are just around the corner:

Looking for your tickets? They are in the mail if all information and financial commitments were made. If you did not receive, please review in the FAQ’s in today’s e-news or call the Temple office next week.

Away at School & Beyond:

Keep your young adult child connected to TBA. Sign-up for Away at School & Beyond for your child, whether they are at college or living on their own. By signing up, they will receive special messages and holiday treats from TBA throughout the year. Information can be found in the weekly e-news or call Irene Metz, Clergy Coordinator.
