

Friday Night Announcements – March 29, 2024

The Oneg is sponsored by Ida Doctor in memory of Joseph Doctor

Saturday, March 30 at 9:00am - Conservative Shabbat & Torah Service

Sunday, April 7 at 9:00-11:00am – TBA Café – Free Pilates Class with Hope Glassberg
Drop your kids off and join us in a classic mat class!

Sunday, April 7 at 4:00-6:00pm – TBA Uncorked!

The Israel Committee's semi-annual wine tasting is back for Passover! Register online.

Sunday, April 14 at 2:00-4:00pm – The Israel Committee presents: Perspectives on Israel

Join us when Rabbi Holtz will moderate a conversation with Alison Bender Kellner and Orly Kobi about Israel.

Passover Seder – Need a seat or have an extra seat at your table? Contact the TBA office

Tell us if you would like to volunteer to be a TBA Minyanaires and lead a shiva service for a fellow congregant. We will help you prepare and supply the books. It's a mitzvah!

All Things 125! – Save the dates for TBA's 125th Anniversary Celebrations:

Thursday, May 9 – “Who Knows One” Fundraiser with TBA Trivia – it will be six degrees of separation and Jewish geography all while you search for the “Chosen One” at this fun evening event!

Saturday, June 1 – TBA Annual Fundraising Gala at The Opus Westchester – more details to follow

At the Shames JCC:

Friday, April 5 at 10:00am at the Shames JCC

Israel on Campus: Zionism, Then and Now - with Rabbi David Holtz

The Hamas-Israel war has spotlighted a generational rift about the meaning of Israel in American-Jewish life. Join us to discuss the historical significance of Israel throughout the Zionist movement and the current attitudes expressed on college campuses and beyond.