

Friday Night Announcements – September 20, 2024

The Flowers on the Bima are dedicated by the Schneider family in honor of Jonah's Bar Mitzvah

The Oneg is sponsored by the Schneider Family in honor of Jonah's Bar Mitzvah

Saturday, September 21 at 9:00am - Conservative Shabbat & Torah Service

Saturday September 21 at 11:00am – Jonah Schneider, son of Sari and Michael Schneider, will be called to the Torah as Bar Mitzvah

Tuesday, September 24, 7:30pm-9:00pm - Hacking the Holydays: Easy ways to Find Deeper Meaning in the High Holyday Experience with Rabbi David Holtz - In Person

Friday, September 27, 5:45pm (prompt) ~ 7:15pm - Women's Circle Kick-Off
Challah Bake with Sarah Winston. Join us as we learn how to create traditional braided and High Holyday round challahs. Free, but please register.

Saturday, September 28 – Selichot Service and Program

7:30pm program

8:30pm Refreshments and Social Time

9:00pm Havdalah and Selichot Service

Join us as award-winning pianist and composer Dave Schlossberg presents "Facing the Music," the story of his journey through spinal cord injury to finding a source of strength and reclaiming life.

Volunteer Opportunities at TBA: Call the Temple Office and we will get you signed up!

- Usher at one or more of the High Holyday services. Help the security and dignity of our services.
- Sukkah Builders and Dismantlers – on Sunday, October 13 and October 27