

Friday Night Announcements –January 17, 2025

The flowers on the bima are sponsored by Ann Adenbaum and Alan Schramm in loving memory of Charlotte Betty Adenbaum

Saturday, January 18 at 9:00am – Conservative Shabbat & Torah Service - Shabbat Tzedek/Shabbat of Justice

Monday, January 20 at noon – Martin Luther King Jr. Day Ecumenical Community Service at the Foster Memorial AME Zion Church in Tarrytown

Join our own Rabbi Holtz and Cantor Fogelman at a MLK Jr. Community Service.

The church itself has strong ties to the abolitionist and civil rights movements. When the church was founded, it was an important stop on the Underground Railroad, and many freed African Americans settled in the area with the aid of church members. The church was active during the civil rights movement and has worked to bring about quality in Tarrytown and the surrounding community.

The service is popular, so arrive early if you want to assure yourself a seat.

Saturday, January 25 at 7:00pm in person ~ Movie Mavens Presents: Four Short Films by Guy Nattiv

Nattiv is an Academy Award winning Israeli film director, screenwriter and producer who lives and works in the United States.

Movie Mavens will view the film together and at the conclusion participate in a moderated discussion.

$5.00 per person suggested donation for guests. No charge for members.

Guests please RSVP: (914) 631-1770

Wednesday January 29 at 7:30pm on Zoom ~ Adult Ed. Presents: *Masters & Stewards: Jewish Environmental Ethics - with Rabbi Marla Feldman

Judaism has much to teach us about our relationship to the natural world and our obligation to care for God's creation as responsible stewards. This textual approach to Judaism and the environment will examine relevant texts from Biblical, Rabbinic, and Medieval tradition and consider what these teachings mean for us today.
