Wednesday January 29 at 7:30pm on Zoom - Adult Ed. Presents: Masters & Stewards: Jewish Environmental Ethics - with Rabbi Marla Feldman

Judaism has much to teach us about our relationship to the natural world and our obligation to care for God's creation as responsible stewards. This textual approach to Judaism and the environment will examine relevant texts from Biblical, Rabbinic, and Medieval tradition and consider what these teachings mean for us today.

SAVE the DATES:

Thursday, March 13, 2025 – PURIM

6:00pm Purim Dinner

7:00pm Purim Service and Shpiel - This year our Purim theme will be "SuperPurim," drawing from all things Super Hero — Marvel, DC, and more. The shpiel will tie in with our upcoming Scholar-in-Residence, Jordan Gorfinkle (aka "Gorf") who will be joining us at the end of March to help us unleash our inner Jewish Superhero!

Scholar in Residence – March 28-30, 2025

TBA is hosting a weekend with Jordan B. “Gorf” Gorfinkel, graphic artist and veteran editor of DC’s “Batman” comic books

There will be interactive activities and learning for all ages on the theme of Judaism as a superpower - “What Super Heroes Teach about Torah and What Torah teaches about Super Heroes.”
