From Rabbi Holtz's Study

Dear Friends,

I hope you have been enjoying Every 1 Counts, our 49-day-long update of the counting of the omer. Though we are just about half-way through, it's time to start thinking about how it all wraps up. There will be more information forthcoming about the details of bringing the food you've collected to Temple. I want to tell you about the spiritual conclusion of the event. As you know if you've been following along, the 49 days of the omer take us from Passover to Shavuot. So Shavuot, the festival celebrating the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai, is the culminating moment of the count. This year it begins on the evening of Thursday, May 25. (Yes, I know it's Memorial Day weekend, but we had the date first!!!)

During Reform services that evening, and also at Conservative services on Shabbat morning, we will be adding a brief but meaningful ritual to mark our fulfillment of the ancient custom of bringing the omer to the Temple. It should be wonderful for everyone, but if you've been participating in the counting, you certainly will not want to miss it.

That Thursday evening is also the night of Confirmation, the magnificent service when our 10th graders confirm the commitments they made at their b-mitzvah three years earlier.

THIS IS NOT A PRIVATE EVENT!

Rather, it has always been very much a congregational celebration of our people's future. In many Reform congregations, Shavuot/Confirmation is a highlight of the ritual year. With our addition of the omer ceremony, we hope that it will once again become a highlight of TBA's year. Please, even if you've never been before, come to the Shavuot/Confirmation/Omer service this year. Bring your food offering to help repair the world, celebrate the great gift of Torah, and be inspired by the commitment of our 10th graders. It promises to be a great evening!

Peace and blessings,

Rabbi David Holtz

Notes from Cantor Margot E.B. Goldberg

Shalom! One of the many things that I admire most about TBA is the continuity of families in our community. There are TBA family trees dating back to the founding members of our Temple of which we will soon celebrate our 125th anniversary year.

L'dor vador, from generation to generation, was the theme of our 100th anniversary celebration. It not only referenced the hope that TBA would exist for another 100 years, but also acknowledged the connections that exist amongst our present membership and to the past and back to our roots. The sense of legacy and commitment to Judaism and TBA is felt so deeply that many families join along with their extended family.

The multi-generational groups that made TBA their home felt the sense of l'dor vador and wanted to be a part of this deep connection. I think it is amazing to have a family join TBA along with grandparents, parents, and children, all at the same time.

We have several families in which a parent had been a b-mitzvah student of mine and Rabbi's who later on joined TBA as an adult. We have had the privilege to name their babies, teach their children in Religious School, and share the bima as their child became a b-mitzvah. We more recently have had the opportunity to celebrate their children's engagements, join them under the chuppah, and rejoice with the birth of their grandchildren. This speaks volumes about the life of our congregation and the commitment to inclusion, innovation, and preservation of our future.

On May 12 at 7:30pm during Shabbat evening services, we will celebrate YOU our members and in particular our Chai Plus Members, those who have been TBA members for 18 years or more. Join us as we sing the liturgy to Broadway show tunes and honor our long-term members.

We want to hear your stories or memories and share them during the Chai Plus Shabbat service. Please send them to me at cantor@tba-ny.org

A few sentences about your thoughts or memory at TBA (examples):

- A positive experience with TBA
- A favorite TBA story or memory
- A contribution I made to TBA that I was proud of
- A lesson I learned at TBA
- Why TBA has been important to me

WOW... where has the year gone!? I feel like I was just writing to you all to announce that I would be the new director of our school and somehow, we are almost done for the year! And WHAT A YEAR IT HAS BEEN!

As we wrap up the year, I am very excited to announce that we again have a graduating class; Bella Greenspoon is graduating from Temple Beth Abraham's Religious School!

Bella, the daughter of Jen and Dave Greenspoon, will be graduating from TBA's Religious School on Monday, May 8th. Bella has been attending our school since Kindergarten, has been a madricha (aide) since 8th grade, has served on our youth board ZEEBO since 9th grade, and is our current youth board President. Bella is also a talented singer, musician, and actress, and is truly incredible with our children in our Sunday School. I know that I, our educators, and our learners will miss her on Sunday mornings!

In the Fall, Bella will attend Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA.

We at TBA are so proud of all that Bella has accomplished at TBA, and we cannot wait to see what the future holds for her! Mazal Tov Bella!

As registration and next year's calendar are being worked on (that information will go out to you all soon!), we are steadily growing! TBA's school's reputation is spreading and I cannot wait to see what next year holds for us! Have you ever thought about teaching? We are always looking for new teachers and substitutes and would love to have you (or a friend!) join our education team for next year.

I would be remiss if I did not mention our end of the year picnic, a day of gratitude, after the last day of Sunday School, May 21st! It will be a day of fun, Jewish joy, and community and I cannot wait to see you all there!

I am so thankful to you all for entrusting me and our educators with your children's Jewish education; we know just how important it is and are thrilled to continue next school year!

L'Shalom!

Bernice Rogowitz Jews and Salt

Have you ever wondered why Lot's wife was turned into salt? Or, what "Kosher" salt is, anyway? Or why we throw salt over our shoulders for good luck? Or why pickles are always on our deli plate? Join us for an exploration of the political and culinary history of salt, and its role in Jewish writings and Jewish lore. And taste some salts from around the world!

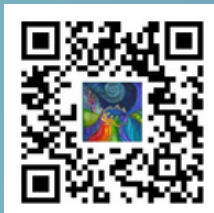

Bernice Rogowitz is an experimental psychologist, working in the field of data visualization. She studies color vision, memory, touch, and pattern perception. She became interested in salt when she learned that the human body has the same salinity as the ocean and started reading about the role of salt in our physiology, in taste perception, and in Jewish teachings and traditions.
