Friday, January 16 at 5:45pm - Women's Circle

Author and illustrator, Andrea Strongwater, will discuss her book, Lost Synagogues of Europe: Paintings and Histories. It combines remarkable paintings of Lost Synagogues of Europe and meticulously researched histories which brings to life the European Jewish Communities destroyed in the Holocaust.

Books will be available to purchase!

Friday, January 16 at 7:30pm and January 17 at 9:00am - Shabbat Tzedek

At these Shabbat Services, we will reflect on and recommit to fighting racial injustice and honor the legacy of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Friday Shabbat service will include special readings and music with themes of righteousness. Services on Shabbat morning will include a special reading about equality in commemoration of MLK.

Saturday, January 17 at 7:00pm - Movie Mavens presents: The Last Shabbat (Dernier Shabbat)

JL Films Product, 2025, 110 mins., Not Rated, Subtitled

On the eve of Shabbat in Paris, a Sephardic family gathers one last time in their grandmother's home. The story ties together questions of identity, survival, and belonging. One night, one family, and one shocking revelation that makes it their last Shabbat.

Monday, January 19 at 12:00pm – MLK Ecumenical Community Service at Foster Memorial AME Zion Church, 90 Wildey Street, Tarrytown

Join Rabbi David and Cantor Lauren for a community held service in remembrance of Martin Luther King, Jr.

This church was active during the civil rights movement and has worked to bring about equality in Tarrytown and the surrounding community.
